Royals™

Kauffman Stadium

The Kansas City Royals will celebrate their 43rd season at Kauffman Stadium in 2015. Kauffman has always been one of the crown jewel ballparks of Major League Baseball. Having hosted 74,345,705 fans since 1973, "The K", with its signature look, has proudly stood the test of time.

After years of planning and design, the Royals unveiled an exciting $250 million renovation of a true Kansas City landmark prior to the 2009 season. Visitors enjoy an improved Kauffman Stadium experience with unsurpassed amenities and state-of-the-art technology that touch each and every fan entering the park.

After debuting the spectacular 84' x 104' Crown Vision HD scoreboard for the 2008 season, the Royals put the finishing touches on one of the most majestic and visually exciting scoreboards in the world with a brand-new interactive crown rising about 40 feet above Crown Vision.

Upon entering through the larger and grander entrances, fans have a chance to explore the stadium via a 360-degree expanded concourse while still keeping tabs on the action on the field. An increase in both concessions and restrooms limit the time spent away from your seats.

The Outfield Experience provides the fans of Kansas City entertainment for all ages. In addition, the views of the field are spectacular and give fans several brand-new locations to take in a game. Unveiled in 2012 was the largest in-stadium solar array in MLB as part of an energy partnership with KCP&L. The 120 panels on the Outfield Experience canopy provide approximately 36,000 kWh of renewable energy each year.

The outfield overhaul now gives Royals fans a chance to sit and enjoy the game from a venue not previously offered. The Outfield Box seats in left-center field sit directly behind the outfield wall and in front of the world-famous fountains. Those seats hug the Miller Lite Fountain Bar, which is built on the old JumboTron base.

seats. Right-center field offers a "standing room only" area between the outfield wall and the fountains, called the Pepsi Party Porch. This area has become among the most popular on hot summer days and nights since, at times, they are in the "splash zone" of the fountains powered by Grundfos.

The left-field area is home to the 7,000-square foot Royals Hall of Fame, presented by Commerce Bank, which opened in 2009. The Hall of Fame features numerous exciting and interactive exhibits as well as memorabilia that will delight Royals fans. Behind the Hall of Fame and fans will find the kids area complete with the Little K with a field turf surface. In addition, there is state-of-the-art batting and pitching cages, the New Era Cap Store, five holes of mini-golf at the Sluggerrr's Putt-Putt, a Royals-themed carousel, the Blue Cross and Blue Shield Base Run and several kids-friendly food options, including Belfonte's Ice Cream Shop.

Also in left field this season will be the set for the Royals' official pre- and post-game show, Royals Live on FOX Sports Kansas City. Throughout the season, broadcasters Joel Goldberg and Jeff Montgomery will host shows from this set.

Fans move along the outfield "Walk of Fame" toward Sweet Baby Rays BBQ and the Rivals restaurant in right field, which boasts The 360 Baseline Bar and the Budweiser Patio.

The second level of the stadium houses new Dugout concourses, concessions and restrooms.

The third level, or ground level of the stadium, feature wider concourses, fan amenities, the Kia Diamond Club premium seating area and 5,000-square foot retail store.

The Loge Level has several suite options to fit any budget while the Hy-Vee Level has been completely renovated to include wider concourses, a food court, new concessions, new restrooms and a retail store.

The new Kauffman Stadium has become a breathtaking fusion of energetic surroundings and an intimate place to watch Royals Baseball.

THE HISTORY OF KAUFFMAN STADIUM

Opened as Royals Stadium on April 10, 1973, Kauffman is recognized throughout baseball as one of the game's most beautiful ballparks. Since then, many exciting games have been contested, including the 1973 and 2012 All-Star Games, three no-hitters, playoff games in 1976, '77, '78, '80, '81, '84, '85 and 2014, with 11 World Series tilts in 1980, 1985 and last season. The facility was officially renamed in honor of Ewing M. Kauffman in a ceremony at the stadium on July 2, 1993.

Before the 2004 season, the outfield fences in the gaps and in straight-away center field were moved back 10 feet to their original dimensions of 387 and 410, respectively, making Kauffman Stadium one of the most spacious parks in Major League Baseball. In addition, the warning track was changed to a natural surface, and the height of the fence is now at eight feet. The fences were moved in 10 feet from bullpen to bullpen prior to the 1995 season and lowered from 12 feet to nine feet. Also at that time, a grass playing field replaced the artificial surface at Kauffman Stadium.

Kauffman Stadium's unique features include a 322-foot wide water spectacular. The water spectacular is the largest privately funded fountain in the world. In keeping with the architecture of the stadium, the existing water spectacular featuring cascading water now extends near the left field corner.

Prior to the 1999 campaign, additional field level seating, known as "Crown Seats" and four dugout suites were added.

The renaming of the stadium was appropriate in that it was the strength and integrity of Ewing M. Kauffman's ownership that provided the cornerstone for the Royals success. Kauffman purchased the club as an expansion franchise in 1968 with the primary and continuous motivation of providing winning Major League Baseball for Kansas Citizens.

Kauffman, who founded Marion Laboratories in his mother's basement and built it into a diversified health care company with sales reaching nearly one billion dollars, possessed a sense of daring and an innate ability to motivate those around him. "Mr. K" also gave much personal attention to the Kansas City community, an important philosophy that was inbred into the Royals organization and still remains today.

Among the awards Mr. Kauffman won for his leadership include the Kansas City Press Club's 1973 Man of the Year, an induction into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame and being named one of 20 finalists for enshrinement in the Baseball Hall of Fame in 2008. Mr. K passed away on August 1, 1993.

The fruits of Moore's labor were realized in 2014 as the club stormed to 89 victories and qualified for the postseason for the first time in 29 years, as a Wild Card participant. The Royals then set a Major League record by reeling off eight-straight wins to open the playoffs, winning the Wild Card game over Oakland and sweeping the Los Angeles Angels (3-0) and Baltimore Orioles (4-0) to qualify for the World Series. KC lost to the San Francisco Giants in a thrilling seven-game series, with the final out recorded with the Royals 90 feet from tying the game in the ninth inning.

Keeping homegrown talent was key to the Royals' 2014 success as over half of KC's postseason roster played at least one full season in the club's minor league system, while 13 of those players were either drafted by the Royals or signed as non-drafted free agents. The final jewel in the club's banner year came in December when the Royals were named Baseball America's 'Organization of the Year' for the just the second time since the publication started the award in 1982.

Moore's tenure in Kansas City has been one of the most successful runs in franchise history as the Royals have boasted nine Rawlings Gold Glove Awards, 13 All-Star Game selections and a Cy Young Award winner in his first nine seasons. The accolades continued to roll in for Moore after the season as he was named "Executive of the Year" by Major League Baseball (GIBBY Awards) as well as the Kansas City Sports Commission. He was elected to the State of Kansas' Baseball Hall of Fame and named Kansan of the Year by the Native Sons and Daughters of Kansas. Moore was also tabbed Alumnus of the Year by George Mason University.

Prior to his tenure as assistant general manager with Atlanta, Moore served three years as Director of Player Personnel where he was responsible for overseeing all aspects of scouting and player development. He originally joined the Braves organization as an area scouting supervisor and was promoted to the front office in August, 1996 as an assistant in the baseball operations department. Moore was named Assistant Director of Scouting in November of 1996 and added the title of Assistant Director of Player Development in 1999. He was promoted to Director of International Scouting during the 2000 season and earned a promotion to Director of Player Personnel in 2002.

Moore was presented by the Atlanta Braves 400 Club with its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" Award, given to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area" in February 2006. He was also awarded the 2005 Executive of the Year by the Mid-Atlantic Scouts Association. He was named by Baseball America in 2005 as one of the Top 10 Up-and-Coming Power Brokers in Major League Baseball and in 2004, was named the top general manager prospect by the same publication.

Moore played a key role in a majority of the Braves string of 14-straight division titles. Under the leadership of former Braves and Royals General Manager John Schuerholz, the Braves earned the prestigious 'Organization of the Year' Award from Baseball America several times, including 2005, when 18 rookies contributed to a team that posted 90 wins. The Braves won at least 100 games five times between 1997-2003 and had not won fewer than 88 games in any non-strike shortened season since 1990 prior to the 2006 season.

Prior to joining the Braves organization, Moore served as an assistant baseball coach at George Mason University from 1990-94. While working on a graduate degree at GMU, Moore also managed the Winchester Royals of the Shenandoah Valley League from 1991-93.

A leader in the Kansas City community, Moore is a regular speaker at numerous community events each year. In 2013, Moore started the "C" You In the Major Leagues Foundation. It was created to support youth baseball, education, families in crisis and faith-based programs and organizations.

Moore was a member of the Board of Directors of the NAIA's Champions of Character program from 2007-10. The program instills an understanding of character values in sport and provides practical tools for student-athletes, coaches and parents to use in modeling exemplary character traits.

Moore and his wife, Marianne, are proud to be involved with the City Union Mission of Kansas City including their service as co-chairs of the Women Who've Changed the Heart of the City banquet in 2011 and 2012.

Moore graduated from George Mason University in 1989 with a degree in physical education and health. Three years later, he earned his master's degree in athletic administration from GMU. - Chosen as the team's Outstanding Rookie in 2010 by the Tampa Bay Chapter of the BBWAA.
- Compiled a seven-game winning streak from July 8–September 11, 2010, tying Milwaukee's John Axford for the longest by a rookie in the Majors in 2010...the streak was tied for the longest in club history with Jeff Niemann (twice, 2008-09 and 2011) and Mark Hendrickson (2005), and is the longest ever by a Rays rookie...after his loss June 27 vs. Arizona, did not lose again until September 27 vs. Baltimore, a stretch of 12 unbeaten starts.
- Made his debut September 6, 2009 vs. Detroit, one day before his 24th birthday...received a no decision in the 5-3 Rays' loss, totaling 7.0 IP, 3 H, 1 ER, 1 BB, 9 SO in 105 pitches...his nine strikeouts set a club record for a Major League debut...left with a 3-1 lead and was two outs from victory when Brandon Inge hit a grand slam off Russ Springer.
- The nine strikeouts were the most by a pitcher making his debut since Boston's Daisuke Matsuzaka (10) on April 5, 2007...fanned the first four hitters he faced and recorded his first six outs via the strikeout...retired 13 of his first 14 batters.
- On September 17, 2009 at Baltimore, his third start, he tossed a complete-game, four-hit shutout to earn his first Major League win (2 BB, 10 SO)...was the first pitcher to throw a 9.0-inning CG shutout in his third Major League game (or sooner) since Boston's Clay Buchholz's no-hitter on September 1, 2007 vs. Baltimore (second career game).
- Became the first pitcher to record his first Major League win via a complete-game shutout (min. 9 IP) since Ervin Santana did it for the Angels on May 23, 2005 vs. the White Sox...became the first pitcher in 17 years to throw a CG shutout with 10+ strikeouts in his first win since California's Tim Lincecum on July 25, 1992 vs. Detroit.
- Has hurled a pair of 7.0-inning minor league no-hitters on August 31, 2006 vs. Beloit and May 4, 2007 at Jupiter.

2014 SEASON

- ▶ Danny spent a majority of the season in the Royals' starting rotation, going 9-12 with a 2.53 ERA in 25 starts (31 overall appearances)...recorded a career-high 113 strikeouts in 149.1 innings.
- ▶ Had a deceiving record as he ranked fifth in the A.L. in ERA (2.53), fifth in opponents' batting average (.209) and ninth in WHIP (1.11) among hurlers with at least 140.0 innings
- ▶ His .209 opponents' average was the lowest by a KC lefty, and third-lowest in club history overall by a hurler with at least 140.0 frames.
- ▶ Especially tough on left-handed hitters, holding them to a .137 batting average (17-for-124), second-lowest in the Major Leagues by a pitcher that faced at least 100 lefties...held left-handed hitters to a .121 average (7-for-58) over his final 10 starts.
- ▶ Held the opposition to a .185 batting average (43-for-232) at home, posting a 2-4 record and a 2.67 ERA (20 ER in 67.1 IP) at 'The K'...went 7-8 with a 2.41 ERA (22 ER in 82.0 IP) on the road.
- ▶ Recorded a 4-3 mark and a 2.23 ERA after the All-Star break...his post-All-Star break ERA ranked 10th among A.L. starting pitchers.
- ▶ Received the lowest run support in the American League (3.38 runs/9.0 innings) among pitchers that made at least 25 starts.
- ▶ Opened the year in Triple-A Omaha, but was recalled on April 11 making just one start for the Storm Chasers.
- ▶ His first six appearances came out of the bullpen as he went 1-1 with a 2.16 ERA, tallying 11 strikeouts in 8.1 frames as a reliever.
- ▶ Retired the first 20 hitters he faced on May 17 vs. Baltimore in a 1-0 win...his bid at perfection was broken up by Adam Jones' two-out single in the seventh...it was the second-most consecutive batters retired to start a game, one shy of Bret Saberhagen's club-record 21 on June 22, 1985 vs. Seattle.
- ▶ Tossed 6.0 scoreless innings, allowing one hit and one walk, to help blank the Cardinals, 6-0 at Busch Stadium on June 2...he and three relievers combined for KC's first-ever regular-season shutout at St. Louis.
- ▶ Threw just one pitch in his September 6 outing at Yankee Stadium, before leaving with stiffness in his left shoulder, missing two turns in the rotation.

2014 POSTSEASON

- ▶ Made three postseason appearances, earning the victory in Game 1 of the ALDS at Angel Stadium, tossing a scoreless 10th inning.
- ▶ Also made a pair of relief appearances in the World Series, allowing two earned runs in 3.2 innings.

- ▶ He also recorded a career-best 15.2 consecutive scoreless innings in 2013...he did not lose a decision after June 5, which included 18 outings with Northwest Arkansas (AA), Omaha (AAA) and Kansas City.

2008	First MLB win: April 26 vs. Toronto	2007	XM Radio Futures Game participant, U.S. Team

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- ▶ Made a successful transition to the bullpen in 2013 after five seasons in the rotation...ranked third in the American League in opponent batting average (.169) and sixth in ERA (1.92) among hurlers with at least 60.0 innings...also tied for sixth among A.L. relievers with 82 strikeouts.
- ▶ His 10.49 strikeouts per 9.0 innings in 2013 is the eighth-highest ratio in team history among hurlers with at least 60.0 innings.
- ▶ Became the first Royals pitcher to face five hitters in a game and strike all of them out, September 10, 2013 at Cleveland.
- ▶ Earned his first Major League save on May 13, 2013, tossing the final 3.0 innings in an 11-4 Royals triumph at Angel Stadium...also recorded a second save on August 8, protecting a three-run lead vs. Boston in a 5-1 KC win.

George Brett wrapped up a 21-year Hall of Fame career with the Royals in 1993 after establishing himself as one of the greatest baseball players to ever play the game.

He became the only Royal and just the 11th third baseman to be inducted into the Hall of Fame on July 25, 1999 after receiving 98 percent of the votes, the fifth-highest mark in history. He had his number retired by the Royals May 14, 1994.

At the conclusion of Brett's career, he was the only player in Major League history to amass more than 3,000 hits, 300 home runs, 600 doubles, 100 triples and 200 stolen bases. He was the first player to win batting titles in three decades (1976, 1980, 1990) and retired as the A.L. career record holder for most intentional walks (229).

A 13-time All-Star, Brett is the club's all-time leader in every offensive category except stolen bases. He was the American League MVP in 1980, finished as the MVP runner up in 1976 and 1985, was a Rawlings Gold Glove Award winner in 1985 and was crowned the Royals Player of the Year eight times.

Brett hit .390 in his MVP season, posting the highest batting average since Ted Williams' .406 mark in 1941.

Born May 15, 1953 in Wheeling, W.V., he captivated the baseball world with his performance in the 1985 ALCS and World Series, earning ALCS MVP honors after the Royals rallied from a three games to one deficit against the Toronto Blue Jays.

Brett posted a .373 career World Series average, going 19-for-51 in 13 games, with three doubles, one triple, one home run and four RBI. He holds numerous ALCS records after recording a career batting average of .340 in the league championships.

He culminated his career with his 3,000th hit on September 30, 1992. Overall, he guided the Royals to seven postseasons and two World Series. During his 21-year career with the Royals, Kansas City posted 15 winning seasons, including eight seasons with at least 90 wins.

20 Frank White

Second Baseman, 1973-90

Career Honors

- ▶ Inducted into Royals Hall of Fame and had number retired in 1995
- ▶ Named to five All-Star games
- ▶ Won eight Rawlings Gold Gloves, including six straight from 1977-82
- ▶ The eight Rawlings Gold Gloves are tied for the third-most all-time among second basemen
- ▶ Voted ALCS MVP in 1980
- ▶ Named to TSN Silver Slugger Team in 1986
- ▶ Played in seven postseasons and two World Series
- ▶ Twice named Royals Player of the Year

Frank White was the defensive star for the Royals from 1973 to 1990, winning eight Rawlings Gold Gloves, an American League record for second basemen at the time. Hall of Famer Bill Mazeroski (8), Ryne Sandberg (9) and Roberto Alomar (10) are the only second basemen in Major League history to accomplish the same feat. His number 20 was retired and he was inducted into the Royals Hall of Fame in 1995.

White claimed the Rawlings Gold Glove award six-straight seasons from 1977 to 1982 and missed an unprecedented ninth award in 1988 after committing just four errors that season and leading the league in fielding percentage.

He was selected to the All-Star team five times and earned the starting nod at second base in 1979. White, who ranks seventh all-time in career fielding percentage among second basemen, was named the Royals' Player of the Year in 1983 and 1986.

A native of Kansas City, White was tabbed as the ALCS MVP in 1980 after hitting .545 (6-for-11) and driving in three runs to lead Kansas City to its first-ever World Series by defeating the New York Yankees.

In the 1985 World Series, White led all players with six RBI, hitting three doubles and a home run as KC rallied from a three games to one deficit to beat St. Louis.

Following his career-best 1986 season, White was selected to the Major League All-Star team that toured Japan in the offseason. He was also named to The Sporting News Silver Slugger Team.

The first-ever graduate of the experimental Royals Academy, White ranks second on the club's career charts in games (2,324), at bats (7,859) and hits (2,006). He also stands in the top five in career runs, doubles, triples, home runs, stolen bases, total bases and extra base hits. He hit three inside-the-park home runs during his playing career with the Royals.

White was honored with the Ernie Mehl Award for his contribution to the Kansas City community in 1988.

10 Dick Howser

Manager, 1981-87

Career Honors

- Inducted into Royals Hall of Fame and had number retired in 1987
- Managed Royals during 1985 World Series title season
- Ranks 2nd in Royals history with 404 wins as Royals manager
- Directed Royals to three division titles
- Guided KC to a 91-71 record in 1985, tied for 3rd-most wins in franchise history
- ESPN Manager of the Year in 1984
- Named to 1961 All-Star Team as a player
- 1961 Sporting News Rookie of the Year
- Elected into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2008

Dick Howser managed the Royals from August 31, 1981 to February 23, 1987 before losing a courageous battle to cancer on June 17, 1987. During Howser's regime, the Royals won three division titles and a World Championship in 1985. His uniform number 10 was the first number retired by the Royals.

One of Major League Baseball's most successful and popular managers, he compiled a 404-365 record (.525) while skipping the Royals.

He guided the club in one of the most remarkable and endearing comebacks in Major League postseason history, defeating Toronto in the ALCS and St. Louis to win the 1985 World Series. His skills and ability to maneuver the lineup and roster played an important role in the club's success, as he capitalized on a strong starting pitching staff and maximized an offense that ranked 13th in average and runs scored.

Howser's World Series season was quite an encore for a manager who was named the ESPN Manager of the Year and finished second in the Baseball Writer's Manager of the Year balloting in 1984. His 1984 edition was hampered by injuries throughout the year as his starting lineup was together for only 50 of the 162 games. Despite the injuries, he guided the Royals from a sixth-place standing and a 40-51 record on July 18, to capture the A.L. West crown by compiling an astonishing 44-25 record over the last 10 weeks.

Overall, he compiled a 507-425 (.544) record at the big league level after guiding the New York Yankees to 103 wins in 1980, becoming just the fourth manager in baseball to win 100 games in his first year.

Howser began his professional career after twice earning All-America honors at Florida State. The 1961 Sporting News Rookie of the Year with the Kansas City A's, he was a member of the 1961 All-Star team and enjoyed an eight-year Major League playing career.

EWING KAUFFMAN

OWNER: 1968-93 (INDUCTED 1993)

The strength and integrity of Ewing Kauffman's ownership was the cornerstone of success for the Royals during the club's first 25 years. Muriel Kauffman, the Royals' First Lady, was the driving force behind Mr. K's decision to buy the Kansas City Royals. She was a member of the club's Board of Directors and served as a major impetus to the smashing success of the Royal Lancers. Away from the ballpark, she established the Muriel McBrien Kauffman Foundation to support and perpetuate the performing arts and to advance education, research and prevention in the health field. REMEMBERING THE ROYALS ACADEMY

Former Royals owner Ewing Kauffman challenged the preconceived notions of the baseball world in 1970 with the creation of the Royals Baseball Academy.

"In a few years this will be called Kauffman's folly or they will be calling me the Branch Rickey of the '70s," Kauffman said.

The Academy, which ran 12 months a year, was designed to supply additional talent to the Royals organization by training athletes in Sarasota, Fla. The mission of the academy was to groom raw athletes into baseball players.

The Academy opened its doors on August 10, 1970 with 42 original players. The campus, which also doubled as the Royals spring home, featured five playing fields, a 50-room dormitory, offices, lecture halls, laboratories, tennis courts and a swimming pool. Former Royals Scouting Director Syd Thrift (a future Yankees General Manager) was named as the director of the Academy.

Royals Hall of Famer Frank White joined the Academy in 1970 and was the first member to graduate to the Majors in 1973. White credits the Academy with instilling fundamentals which turned him into one of the best defensive second basemen in baseball history.

Despite the success of Frank White and 13 other graduates who played in the Majors, including U.L. Washington, dwindling class sizes and the cost of the Academy eventually led to its closing in May, 1974.

GAME SUMMARY

Kansas City hosted an MLB All-Star Game for the first time on July 11, 1960. The 28th version of the Midsummer Classic was played at Municipal Stadium with the National League prevailing, 5-3. Two days later, the N.L. would win once again, shutting out the A.L., 6-0, at Yankee Stadium.

The game in Kansas City was attended by 30,619 fans who witnessed the senior circuit get off to a scorching start against A.L. starter and losing pitcher, Bill Monbouquette of the Boston Red Sox.

Willie Mays led off for the N.L. and tripled to right. Mays scored when the next batter, Bob Skinner, singled. After consecutive outs from future Hall of Famers Eddie Mathews and Hank Aaron, another future Hall of Famer, Ernie Banks, homered to give the N.L. a 3-0 lead.

The N.L. added a fourth run in the second inning on catcher Del Crandall's solo home run and a fifth in the third frame as future Hall of Famer Bill Mazeroski drove home Banks with a single to left.

Another future member of the Hall of Fame, Al Kaline, blasted a two-run home run in the eighth to bring the A.L. within two runs at 5-3, but that was as close as they were able to get.

No MVP was named, but Mays ended up 3-for-4 with a run scored and Banks added two hits, drove in two and scored two runs.

The game featured 15 future Hall of Famers (plus Hall of Fame managers Walter Alston and Al Lopez), all indicated in bold in the box score. Ted Williams, who would retire at the end of the season, grounded out to second base as a pinch hitter in the second inning. Cardinals legend Stan Musial recorded an infield single as a pinch hitter in the road half of the eighth.

Al Lopez managed the American League and was joined by coaches Tony Cuccinello and Don Gutteridge. The National League was managed by Walter Alston, who was joined by coaches Solly Hemus and Fred Hutchinson.

Finally, Hall of Fame umpire Nestor Chylak umpired both second and first base in 1960 and then returned to Kansas City to umpire home plate during the 1973 All-Star Game.

1973 All-Star Game - Royals Stadium

GAME SUMMARY

Kansas City was the site of the 40th Major League Baseball All-Star Game in 1973 where the National League handed the American League a 7-1 loss.

The game marked the final All-Star appearance of Willie Mays and was attended by members of the first All-Star Game in 1933, including Carl Hubbell, Bill

Hallahan, Lefty Gomez,
Dick Bartel, Lefty Grove,
Jimmie Dykes and Charlie
Gehringer.

The A.L. jumped out to a 1-0 lead after a double from Reggie Jackson and an RBI single from KC's Amos Otis. However, the N.L. All-Stars countered with two runs in the top of the third and also scored in the fourth, fifth and sixth innings. Rick Wise earned the win for the N.L. after allowing two hits and one ER in 2.0 innings of work.

Bobby Bonds was named the game's MVP, coming off the bench to go 2-for-2 with a two-run homer in the fifth inning, giving the N.L. a 5-1 lead.

Johnny Bench hit one of the most mammoth home runs in the history of the Mid-Summer Classic, launching a 480-foot solo shot off Bill Singer in the 4th inning over the left field concourse. His homer still stands as the longest in Kauffman Stadium history.

The game featured 17 future Hall of Famers (plus three Hall of Fame managers), including Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, Rod Carew, and Brooks Robinson to name a few, while Hall of Fame manager Joe Torre played in the game for the National League. The game also featured three Royals - Amos Otis, John Mayberry and Cookie Rojas - and one future Royals manager, Buddy Bell, who tripped as a pinch hitter in the third inning. Otis led the A.L. players, going 2-for-2 with the team's only RBI.

Dick Williams managed the American League and was joined by coaches Whitey Herzog and Chuck Tanner. The National League was managed by Sparky Anderson, who was joined by coaches Gene Mauch and Bill Virdon.

Kauffman Stadium (then Royals Stadium) was the host of the 1973 All-Star Game which featured 17 future Hall of Famers.

GAME SUMMARY

Kansas City hosted its third MLB All-Star Game on July 10, 2012. The 83rd version of the Midsummer Classic was played at Kauffman Stadium with the National League prevailing, 8-0, moving the senior circuit's record to a perfect 3-0 in All-Star Games playing in the City of Fountains.

Eleven pitchers combined on the six-hit shutout for the National League with the win claimed by starter Matt Cain.

The victory was the National League's third straight and clinched home field advantage which proved beneficial for the San Francisco Giants who won the first two games of the 2012 World Series en route to a sweep over the Detroit Tigers. Giants played key roles in the All-Star Game win, including MVP Melky Cabrera, starting and winning pitcher Matt Cain, and 2012 World Series MVP Pablo Sandoval, who connected for a three-run triple.

The game in Kansas City was attended by 40,933 fans who witnessed the senior circuit get off to a scorching start against A.L. starter and losing pitcher, Justin Verlander of the Detroit Tigers, scoring five times.

After a strikeout to open the game, a Cabrera single and Ryan Braun double scored the game's first run. A pair of two-out walks loaded the bases for Sandoval, who emptied the bags with a triple. Dan Uggla followed with a single, driving in Sandoval.

Neither league threatened until the fourth when the National League added three runs, all with two outs, to create the final 8-0 deficit. Rafael Furcal tripled, then scored as his Cardinals teammate Matt Holliday singled. Cabrera followed with a two-run home run to deep left field.

The American League's best scoring chance came in the bottom of the fifth as back-to-back one-out singles from David Ortiz and Mike Napoli and a two-out walk to Asdrubal Cabrera loaded the bases. But Ian Kinsler flew out to end the threat.

Cabrera of the San Francisco Giants, who played with the Royals in 2011, was named the MVP after going 2-for-3 with two RBI and two runs scored.

Quartet of Royals No-Hitters

STEVE BUSBY

April 27, 1973 at Detroit
Kansas City 3, Detroit 0

In just his 10th Major League start, 23-year old Steve Busby recorded the first no-hitter in club history by shutting down Detroit on April 27, 1973. His no-hitter was the first in Tiger Stadium since 1952. He allowed 6 walks and struck out 4 in the 3-0 win.

In his next start, Busby allowed just 1 hit in 5.2 innings of work in a 5-3 win at Milwaukee on May 4. Busby picked up where he left off, tossing 5.1 hitless innings until Dave May homered in the sixth inning. Busby didn't allow any more hits but was removed later that inning because of wildness.

Dominican Academy

The Kansas City Royals maintain a strong presence in the area of scouting and player development in Latin America, the Caribbean and Asia. The Royals' International Operations is responsible for the scouting and signing of players, in addition to assisting in the development of players, by operating a brand new state-of-the-art complex in Guerra, Santo Domingo, in the Dominican Republic.

Originally established in 1986, the Dominican Royals received a new look in 2012 with the construction of a sports complex in Guerra, 30 minutes east of Santo Domingo, to house the franchise's Dominican Republic Academy. The two-level complex houses 72 players who will participate in the Dominican Summer League each season. On-site dormitories, full kitchen, a classroom, computer lab, conference and recreation rooms, dining facilities, and management offices help develop the players off the field, while two and a 1/2 baseball fields meeting Major League Baseball specifications prepare the players to advance within the organization. The complex is also equipped with sheltered batting cages, weight training and laundry rooms, clubhouse and expanded bullpens.

DENNY MATTHEWS ANNOUNCER

Denny Matthews, the 2007 Ford C. Frick Award winner, was honored during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremonies in Cooperstown on July 29, 2007. He became a member of the Royals' Hall of Fame in August of 2004 and will celebrate his 47th season behind the microphone for the club in 2015. The "Voice of the Royals" has broadcast exclusively for the same team, without interruption, in six different decades. Matthews is a 2005 Missouri Sports Hall of Fame inductee.

In January, Matthews signed a new four-year agreement to stay with the Royals through the 2018 season, which would be his 50th in the Kansas City broadcast booth.

In 2008, Matthews became the fifth broadcaster in Major League history to spend 40 consecutive seasons behind the microphone for one club, joining Vin Scully (Brooklyn/Los Angeles, 65), Jaime Jarrin (Los Angeles, 55), Bob Prince (Pittsburgh, 48) and Jack Buck (St. Louis, 47) as the only announcers to accomplish that feat.

Matthews has seen more Royals games than anyone else during his 46 years with Kansas City. He was chosen from more than 300 applicants for the No. 2 announcer position alongside the late Buddy Blattner prior to the Royals initial season in 1969, before taking over the No. 1 job following the 1975 season. He teamed with Fred White on the Royals Radio Network from 1974-98 before Ryan Lefebvre joined him in the booth in 1999 through 2007. Bob Davis, Steve Stewart and Steve Physioc have served as Denny's partners since the beginning of the 2008 season.

The veteran broadcaster has lent his play-by-play skills to the CBS Radio Network during portions of the regular season and during the 1982 and 1985 World Series. He worked with Hall of Famer Ernie Harwell, calling the CBS broadcast of the 1982 ALCS between the Angels and Brewers.

Matthews is active in the Kansas City community and dedicates his time and resources to several area charities, including the SAFE program, a charity that supports families of fallen policemen, firemen and emergency workers, as well as Operation Lifesaver, a railroad crossing safety and awareness program. He is also the author of the two books: the 2004, "Tales from the Royals Dugout", and the 2009 "Hi, Anybody" and co-author of the 1999 book "Play by Play-25 Years of Royals on Radio."

Matthews graduated from Central Catholic High School in Bloomington, Ill., and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in August, 2001. He is a 1966 graduate of Illinois Wesleyan where he lettered in football and baseball for three years and finished eighth in the nation (NAIA) in pass receiving in 1965.

Prior to joining the Royals, Matthews worked for WMBD-TV and radio and KMOX-TV. His brother, Mike, is the radio analyst for Illinois State University basketball.

Matthews, an avid collector of sports publications, enjoys playing golf and hockey. He resides in Leawood, Kan.

STEVE STEWART ANNOUNCER

Royals Radio pre-game host and play-by-play broadcaster Steve Stewart is in his eighth season with the Royals, his 16th in the Major Leagues and his 24th overall in baseball.

Prior to joining Kansas City, Stewart spent the previous four years with the Cincinnati Reds' broadcast team, from 2004 through 2006 on WLW radio, and in 2007 on TV as a pre-game host and fill-in play-by-play announcer for FOX Sports Ohio.

From 2000-03, he filled in on Baltimore Orioles broadcasts on WBAL, where he was a sports anchor on both WBAL radio and TV. In 2002 he called several St. Louis Cardinals games on KMOX. Stewart previously broadcast in the minor leagues for the Calgary Cannons and Richmond Braves, as well as at the collegiate level calling University of South Carolina baseball.

A St. Louis native, Stewart began his broadcasting career as a student at Southern Methodist University, where he broadcast football and basketball. He has broadcast college basketball games for several schools, including the University of Richmond, as well as South Carolina, Maryland, Cincinnati (football and basketball) and Xavier. He spent seven years in TV news and sports. Stewart has a 16-year old son, John, and resides in Overland Park, Kan.

DON FREE MANAGER-RADIO NETWORK OPERATIONS

Don Free begins his 30th year as the producer/engineer of the Royals radio broadcasts, his 11th season as Manager-Radio Network Operations. Free worked for Stauffer-Morris for 31 years, spending the first 18 years at WIBW-TV in Topeka, before moving to the radio network.

He has also worked for Kansas State Radio Network the past few years, assisting with the first Pinstripe Bowl at Yankee Stadium in 2010, the 2012 Cotton Bowl and the 2013 Fiesta Bowl.

ANNOUNCER

Royals Hall of Fame pitcher Jeff Montgomery begins his sixth season contributing to Royals broadcasts on FOX Sports Kansas City, serving as a co-host on "Royals Live" pre-game and postgame shows. "Monty" also offers analysis in the broadcast booth during select games on FSKC.

He spent 12 of his 13 big league seasons with the Royals and is the club's all-time saves leader with 304. The three-time All-Star (1992, 1993, 1996) was the Rolands A.L. Reliever of the Year in 1993, finishing tied for the league lead with 45 saves, matching a club record at that time. He also holds the club record for career appearances (686) and ranked ninth on MLB's all-time saves list at the time of his retirement.

Montgomery also serves as the Vice President of Union Broadcasting, Inc. in Kansas City and will contribute to MLB Network broadcasts during the 2015 season. He and wife, Tina, have two daughters, Ashleigh and Kathryn and two sons, Connor and Spencer.

REMEMBERING SPLITT AND FRED

Paul Splittorff (1946-2011)

The Royals lost a legend and a friend on May 25, 2011. Paul Splittorff, a Royals Hall of Famer and the club's all-time winningest pitcher, lost his courageous battle with melanoma.

"Split" joined the broadcast booth after retiring from the game in 1984 and worked for 24 years as an analyst for Royals television.

He joined the Royals organization in 1968 and compiled a 166-143 record with a 3.81 ERA in 429 games during his 15-year playing career. In addition to recording the most wins in Royals history, the left-hander also owns the club record for starts (392) and innings pitched (2,554.2). He became Kansas City's first 20-game winner in 1973 and was inducted into the Royals Hall of Fame in 1987.

Splittorff is survived by his wife, Lynn, daughter, Jennifer, and son, Jamie.

Fred White (1936-2013)

The Royals lost another longtime icon on May 15, 2013, when Fred White passed away due to complications with melanoma.

White, an Illinois native, was a broadcasting staple in the Midwest, highlighted by 25 years in the Royals' radio booth. A sports anchor at nearby WIBW-TV in Topeka, White was the voice of Kansas State athletics until he joined the Royals in 1973. When not calling games for K-State or the Royals, the popular announcer was the voice of the Big Eight, later the Big 12 Television Network during basketball seasons. He also called events for ESPN, CBS, NBC and TBS.

After leaving the Royals' broadcast booth, White continued to keep his hand in the industry, heading up the Royals Radio Network as well as supervising the Royals Alumni.

RYAN LEFEBVRE

Ryan Lefebvre begins his 17th season as a Royals broadcaster and his 21st season in the Majors. Lefebvre will work 120 regular-season games in the television booth in 2015, joining partner Rex Hudler on FOX Sports Kansas City. Lefebvre will also work on the Royals Radio Network when he is not in the television booth.

Before joining the Royals for the 1999 season, he spent four seasons as a broadcaster for the Minnesota Twins. He was hired by Minnesota at the age of 24, one year after graduating from college. He worked both television and radio for the Twins and broadcast University of Minnesota football, hockey and volleyball.

The Los Angeles native graduated from Loyola High School in 1989 and began his broadcasting career as a freshman at the University of Minnesota at KUOM radio. He graduated from the University of Minnesota in 1994 where he was a three-time All-Big Ten selection in baseball and established school records for hits, triples and at-bats. He was selected in the 27th round of the 1993 June Free Agent Draft by the Cleveland Indians.

Lefebvre is the son of former big league player and manager Jim Lefebvre. Actively involved in a number of Kansas City community activities, he is the founder of Gloves For Kids and the Footprints Foundation, which raises money for youth programs in Kansas and Missouri. In 2011, Lefebvre was the recipient of the John J. "Buck" O'Neil MVP Award for his commitment to youth in Kansas City. He was also named the 2006 Boys & Girls Club of Greater Kansas City Role Model of the Year.

Lefebvre and his wife, Sarah, reside in Greenwood, Mo., with their sons: Micah, Evan and Lucas. The couple is expecting a daughter to be named later, who is due on Opening Day of this year.

REX HUDLER

ANNOUNCER

Rex Hudler enters his fourth season as a part of the Royals broadcast team as an analyst on FOX Sports Kansas City. Hudler worked in the same capacity alongside fellow Royals announcer, Steve Physioc, broadcasting the Los Angeles Angels for 11 seasons from 1999-2009.

A veteran with over 30 years of baseball experience, including 21 as a player, Hudler, nicknamed "Wonder Dog" quickly became a fan favorite at all of his Major League stops. Over 1,083 career big league games, Hudler was a .261 career hitter with 56 home runs and 169 RBI.

Born in Tempe, Ariz., and a 1978 graduate of Bullard High School in Fresno, Calif., Hudler was a 1999 inductee into the Fresno Hall of Fame. He excelled in all sports in high school, receiving 25 football scholarship offers before signing a letter of intent to play at Notre Dame. He chose baseball after being selected as the 18th overall pick by the New York Yankees in 1978.

Hudler is an award-winning broadcaster who began his announcing career as a special consultant for "Good Morning America" during the 1997 playoffs and 1998 Super Bowl. He is a four-time winner (2003, '05, '07, '09) of the Television Color Analyst of the Year by the Southern California Sports Broadcasters. Hudler won an Emmy in 2004 for "Angels in the Infield" and has loaned his voice to several baseball video games.

He is an active motivational speaker and he and his wife, Jennifer, founded "Team Up for Down Syndrome." The Hudlers have been awarded several honors for their community service. He and his wife have four children: Alyssa, Cade, William and David.

JOEL GOLDBERG

Spring Training Home

The Royals 47th Spring Training season in club history will be their 13th at the club's facility in Surprise, Ariz.

The Royals and Texas Rangers share a $48 million, 10,500-seat multi-purpose Recreation and Major League Spring Training Campus on land owned by the City of Surprise. In addition, the city is using the facilities for adult and youth recreation programs, community events and programs, special events and meeting facilities.

The stadium complex and baseball practice fields are incorporated into a master-planned municipal center, including administrative offices, recreation/aquatic center, 23,000-square-foot library and 35-40 acre passive park.

Surprise is approximately 35 minutes northwest of Phoenix, past Sun City West off Highway 60. The complex is located on 125 acres in the vicinity of Bullard Avenue and Greenway Road.

Populous (formerly HOK), an internationally-renowned Kansas City architectural firm devoted to creating exceptional sports facilities, was designated to design the facility.

Groundbreaking took place with Hall of Famers George Brett and Nolan Ryan in attendance on May 21, 2001. The facility was dedicated during a special ceremony and community celebration attended by members of the Royals and Rangers on December 7, 2002. The two teams played the first game at the complex on February 27, 2003, with the Royals coming away with a 6-3 win.

The Royals have won the unofficial Cactus League title three times, their first season in Arizona in 2003, 2011 and 2013.
